

NBSS&LUP's drama gets appreciation

■ Staff Reporter

STAGING of a short drama showcasing importance of Hindi by the personnel of ICAR-National Bureau of Soil Survey and Land Use Planning (NBSS&LUP), Nagpur marked end of the Hindi Fortnight at the prestigious institution.

Apart from the drama that was appreciated by everyone, certificates and cash prizes were distributed to winners of various competitions organised during the fortnight. The programme was presided over by Acting Director Dr GP Obi Reddy. Dr Mithlesh Awasthi, retired Head of the Department (Hindi) of PWS College, Nagpur was the chief guest.

Dr Awasthi in his address said all Indian languages are prosperous in their expression. But Hindi, which is spoken and understood across the country, has been given the status of the official language in our Constitution. In his address, Dr Reddy underlined the easiness of working in Hindi while mentioning the similarity of Indian languages through various examples.

The programme was co-ordinated and conducted by Deputy Director (Official Language) Devendra Kumar Dharam.
